HOORAY for our library!

The Lodi Public Library serves an active, vibrant community with diverse interests. Keeping up with our patrons is a fun and challenging part of running the library!

Over the past 26 years, this Run Walk event has relieved some of the funding burden by helping pay off the building, paying for great materials, and helping the library stay up-to-date on technology.

You play a big role in keeping important resources available for our entire community; for that, the library board and staff offer our heart-felt

THANK YOU!

we couldn't do it without you!
